“You Can’t Write A Poem About McDonald’s” Quiz

1. Which word best describes the speaker of the poem?
   A. Romantic       B. Greedy       C. Fearful       D. Hungry

2. Who is compared to as being “crisp as a pickle”?
   A. The crazy fanatic   B. The young couple   C. The counter girl   D. The people eating

3. What is an example of alliteration?
   A. Crisp as a pickle   B. French fries   C. Cherry trees   D. Lake Street McDonald’s

4. What is an example of simile?
   A. Salty odor of sweat   B. Couples coupling   C. Singing in my belly   D. Face brown as a bun

5. What is an example of consonance?
   A. Warm flesh   B. Warm aroma   C. Couple frying   D. Hot, oily sun

6. What is an example of onomatopoeia?
   A. Screaming   B. Sensation-hungry   C. Sluggish   D. Sizzle

7. What is the correct definition of “cannibalism”?
   A. Unavoidable bad fate   B. Firm and fresh   C. Being saved from harm   D. Human eating a human

8. “Hunger is the only thing / singing in my belly” is an example of which figurative device?
   A. Assonance   B. Consonance   C. Personification   D. Simile

9. What is the correct definition of “Aroma”?
   A. An odor   B. Melted animal fat   C. Flowers of a plant   D. A close-fitting garment

10. How does this poem best answer the question, what can poetry be written about?
    A. Anything   B. Love   C. Nature   D. Restaurants
“You Can’t Write A Poem About McDonald’s” Quiz