

Bay

"They stretched in never-ending line / Along the margin of a bay: / Ten thousand saw I at a glance, / Tossing their heads in sprightly dance."

An inlet of the sea or other body of water usually smaller than a gulf.

Bliss

"For oft, when on my couch I lie / In vacant or in pensive mood, / They flash upon that inward eye / Which is the bliss of solitude;"

Complete happiness.

Daffodil

"I wandered lonely as a cloud / That floats on high o'er vales and hills, / When all at once I saw a crowd, / A host, of golden daffodils;"

A yellow flower that blooms in the spring and that has a center that is shaped like a long tube.

Flutter

"A host, of golden daffodils; / Beside the lake, beneath the trees, / Fluttering and dancing in the breeze."

To move with quick wavering or flapping motions.

Glee

"The waves beside them danced; but they / Out-did the sparkling waves in glee: / A poet could not but be gay, / In such a jocund company:"

A strong feeling of happiness.

Jocund

"The waves beside them danced; but they / Out-did the sparkling waves in glee: / A poet could not but be gay, / In such a jocund company:"

Marked by or suggestive of cheerfulness and lively mirthfulness.

Margin

"They stretched in never-ending line / Along the margin of a bay: / Ten thousand saw I at a glance, / Tossing their heads in sprightly dance."

The place where something stops: the edge of something.

O'er

"I wandered lonely as a cloud / That floats on high o'er vales and hills, / When all at once I saw a crowd, / A host, of golden daffodils;"

Over.

Oft

“For oft, when on my couch I lie / In vacant or in pensive mood, / They flash upon that inward eye / Which is the bliss of solitude;”

Often.

Pensive

“For oft, when on my couch I lie / In vacant or in pensive mood, / They flash upon that inward eye / Which is the bliss of solitude;”

Lost in serious or sad thought.

Solitude

“For oft, when on my couch I lie / In vacant or in pensive mood, / They flash upon that inward eye / Which is the bliss of solitude;”

The quality or state of being alone or away from others.

Sprightly

“They stretched in never-ending line / Along the margin of a bay: / Ten thousand saw I at a glance, / Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.”

Full of life and energy.

Vale

“I wandered lonely as a cloud / That floats on high o'er vales and hills, / When all at once I saw a crowd, / A host, of golden daffodils;”

Valley.
