

Do not drive in this lane

Move out of this lane and into a lane with a green arrow.
If the lane control signals over all of the lanes are flashing yellow, slow down and proceed with caution

Drive in this lane

Stop — after coming to a full stop, you may turn right or turn left onto a one-way street unless a sign forbids it

Continue if the intersection is clear

Slow down and stop before the intersection unless you can't safely stop in time

Stop, then continue only when it is safe

Pedestrian-controlled light — go only if the intersection is clear

Slow down and proceed with caution

Turn in the direction of the arrow

No turn permitted; go straight through only

May turn in the direction of the arrow or proceed

Left turn allowed; through traffic must stop for red light

Advance left turn signal is about to change, slow down and stop before the intersection unless you can't safely stop in time

Only buses may go on this signal

Passing is allowed when safe

You may pass only when it is safe and the broken line is on your side

No passing allowed

Passing is allowed with extra caution

Lane is reversible — lane control signal will show whether you may use this lane

Drivers travelling in opposite directions share this lane for left turns — markings may be reversed (solid lines inside the broken lines)

Do not change lanes

Lane changing is allowed when safe

Stop before this line

Stop for pedestrians in the crosswalk

Stop for pedestrians in the crosswalk

Stop for pedestrians in the crosswalk

Reserved lane — additional signs or markings state which vehicles are allowed

Bicycle lane — for cyclists only — cyclists must travel in the same direction as the traffic beside them — the lane is marked with an outline of a bicycle and sometimes with a diamond

Vehicles in this lane must turn left

Vehicles in this lane must go straight or turn left

Keep to the right and do not drive on or over