

The Seven Years War: I Can Statements

1. I can analyze maps to understand changes that occurred between 1750 and 1763 in North America.
2. I can explain why Fort Louisbourg was built at Ile Royale and describe its structure.
3. I can explain how Fort Louisbourg became controlled by the British.
4. I can discuss the importance of the Ohio River Valley to the French, English and Aboriginal peoples.
5. I can describe who the Acadians were and why they were exiled.
6. I can explain what happened during the Seven Years War.
7. I can describe the “Last Battle” for Quebec.
8. I can discuss the leadership of Wolfe and Montcalm.
9. I can understand the long-term impact of the Seven Years War on Canada.
10. I can understand the importance of the Royal Proclamation for Aboriginal land claims.
11. I can define the following key terms:
 - Colony: the overseas possession of another country that governs and uses it for its own purposes.
 - Mother country: a term describing the country immigrants came from.
 - Guerrilla warfare: warfare that is loosely organized and uses small groups, surprise raids, and sabotage.
 - Siege: to surround and attack a fortified enemy, preventing food and other supplies from entering.
 - Expel: the forced removal of a whole people from their homeland.
 - Deport: to send back to one’s country of origin.
 - Militia: a body of civilian soldiers called out for service only during emergencies.