

“The House Of Many Eyes” Questions

1. What happens as a result of Mr. Creighton’s accident? How does this negatively affect his life?
2. Is Mrs. Creighton right or wrong to buy a cheap and lesser amount of tobacco for her husband? Why?
3. Why does Mr. Creighton feel spiteful towards his wife?
4. Mr. Creighton sits outside in the cold and tells his wife, “I understood you to say that a cripple like me has no right to a fire in the heater” (Grove 200). What feelings does he hope to evoke from her? Why?
5. In his crippled condition, what similarities does Mr. Creighton share with the house of many eyes?